SciVerse Scopus is the world's largest abstract and citation database of peer-reviewed literature and quality web sources. Contains 41 million records, 70% with abstracts; Nearly 18,000 titles from 5,000 publishers worldwide; 70% of content is pulled from international sources; Includes over 3 million conference papers; Provides 100% Medline coverage; Offers sophisticated tools to track, analyze and visualize research.

CABI is a not-for-profit international organization that improves people's lives by providing information and applying scientific expertise to solve problems in agriculture and the environment. Their mission and direction is influenced by their member countries who help guide the activities they undertake. These include scientific publishing, development projects and research, and microbial services. 2010 marked 100 years of CABI. Since its beginnings as an entomological committee in 1910, it then developed into a Commonwealth organization before becoming a truly international service in agricultural information, pest identification and biological control in the mid 1980s.

EBSCOhost® databases are the most-used, premium online information resources for tens of thousands of institutions worldwide, representing millions of end-users.

News !

In April, 12, 2012

AACL Bioflux (2007)

and

Pontus Euxinus (1980)

were merged into one journal, namely:

AACL Bioflux (1980).

This bigger journal will keep the rights, obligations, editorial policies, ISSN codes, website, indexes, journal metrics and collaborative projects of older AACL Bioflux (as long as Pontus Euxinus has no issue published after 2000).

This contract of cooperation is definitive and regards:

- editorial boards
- reviewers boards and
- series

That means:

- a larger board of editors and reviewers
- a larger number of authors and submissions
- tradition: Pontus Euxinus is AACL Bioflux's past.

We thank: Natural Sciences Museum Complex (Constantza, Romania) and Bioflux publishing house (Cluj-Napoca, Romania) for this collaborative effort !
